

The book cover features a dark, textured background. A large, white, torn-edged shape, resembling a piece of paper or a garment, is the central focus. On this white shape, the title is written in a mix of black and orange-red fonts. Below the title, there is a stylized illustration of a person's face and hair in shades of orange, red, and pink. In the bottom left corner, a small, dark rectangular object, possibly a mobile phone, is depicted. Three thin white rectangular boxes are overlaid on the cover: one on the left side, one at the bottom right containing the author's name, and one at the bottom center containing the publisher's name.
